

STUDENTS RECOGNIZE 9/11

West Caldwell's Jefferson School Principal Tim Ayers spoke about the significance of Sept. 11, 2001, and the importance of recognizing all the heroes in our lives during a ceremony held last Wednesday, Sept. 11, the 12th anniversary of the terror attacks. Jefferson students gathered around the American flag in front of their school and joined in reciting the Pledge of Allegiance. In a show of unity as Americans and a school community, the students wore red, white, and blue to school.
