

Important School District Message

April 17 update

Dear CWC School Community,

Reminder: As announced yesterday, New Jersey schools will be closed through Friday, May 15. We are therefore planning for Remote Learning to continue for at least the next four weeks.

The NJ Department of Children and Families has shared this attached memo , which provides guidance to parents about planning for the care of children during the pandemic.

I hope that you and your families are safe and well. We will get through this together.

Sincerely,

James Heinegg
