

Important School District Message

May 5 update

Dear CWC School Community,

Below are a few updates/reminders/resources for May 5.

Please stay safe and healthy!

Sincerely,

James Heinegg

1. Remote Learning to continue through conclusion of this school year. It was announced on Monday that schools will remain closed through the end of the 2019-20 school year. We will continue to implement Remote Learning.
2. Resources on Grief, Loss, and Healing from Mary Cunningham. Please see this message from Mary Cunningham, LPC, who is the SAC at James Caldwell High School, and who also serves as a liaison for the elementary Bridge counselors. It includes resources on grief, loss, and healing, and a message from Lou Schwarcz, Bridge CEO.
3. Orchestral Tribute to GCMS Principal Jim Brown. Music Teacher Will Downey and his students created this orchestral tribute to Mr. Brown. Mr. Downey explains:

"When Mr. James Brown passed away, I recorded a video message to my students, playing a melody entitled Ashokan Farewell and then speaking to them on my feelings in the moment. As a way to help everyone cope and heal, I asked them to record the same melody and send it to me. This video is a compilation of their renditions, renditions by two parents who are also string teachers, along with background orchestral parts recorded by our CWC string teachers and a JCHS student."
